BACKGROUND

Originally enacted as title II of the Act of July 30, 1953 (ch. 282, 67 Stat. 232), the Small Business Act of 1953 was made a separate Act, renamed the Small Business Act, and revised by Public Law 85-536 on July 18, 1958. A month later, by Public Law 85-699, Congress enacted the Small Business Investment Act of 1958. Since 1958, the Acts have been amended a number of times and have been supplemented by provisions in other Acts that, while they do not amend either Act by their terms, have the effect of modifying the Acts. Some of the amendments added provisions that are now obsolete, and some added provisions that are inconsistent with other provisions.

The Acts are classified to separate chapters of title 15 of the United States Code. The bill restates the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 631 et seq.), the Small Business Investment Act of 1958 (15 U.S.C. 661 et seq.), and related provisions of other Acts as a new positive law title of the United States Code. The new positive law title replaces the former provisions, which are repealed by the bill.

The bill was prepared by the Office of the Law Revision Counsel as part of the Office's ongoing responsibility under section 205(c) of House Resolution No. 988, 93d Congress, as enacted into law by Public Law 93-554 (2 U.S.C. 285b), "[t]o prepare, and submit to the Committee on the Judiciary one title at a time, a complete compilation, restatement, and revision of the general and permanent laws of the United States".

RESTATEMENT DOES NOT CHANGE MEANING OR EFFECT OF EXISTING LAW

The bill is a codification measure prepared in accordance with section 205(c) of House Resolution No. 988, 93d Congress as enacted into law by Public Law 93-554 (2 U.S.C. 285b). The purpose of the bill is to enact a restatement of certain existing law relating to small business as a positive law title of the United States Code. The restatement of existing law does not change the meaning or effect of the existing law. The restatement consolidates various provisions that were enacted separately over a period of many years, reorganizing them, conforming style and terminology, modernizing obsolete language, and correcting drafting errors. These changes serve to remove ambiguities, contradictions, and other imperfections, but they do not change the meaning or effect of the existing law or impair the precedential value of earlier judicial decisions or other interpretations.

The courts have repeatedly held that the restatement of existing law in a bill such as this one does not change the meaning or effect of the existing law unless Congress explicitly expresses the intent to do so. See, e.g., the following:

Finley v. United States, 490 U.S. 545, 553–55 (1989).

SECTION-BY-SECTION EXPLANATION

SECTION 1—TABLE OF CONTENTS

Section 1 of the bill provides a table of contents for the Act.

SECTION 2—PURPOSE; RESTATEMENT DOES NOT CHANGE MEANING OR EFFECT OF EXISTING LAW

Section 2(a) of the bill provides that the purpose is to enact a restatement of certain existing law relating to small business as a positive law title of the United States Code.

Section 2(b)(1) of the bill provides that the restatement of existing law does not change the meaning or effect of the existing law

(see the explanation above, under the heading “Restatement Does Not Change Meaning or Effect of Existing Law”).

Section 2(b)(2) of the bill creates a rule of construction to provide that, notwithstanding the plain meaning rule or other rules of statutory construction, a change in wording made in the restatement of existing law serves to clarify the existing law, but not to change the meaning or effect of the existing law. This rule of construction applies whether or not a change in wording is explained by a revision note appearing in a congressional report accompanying the bill. The bill provides that if such a revision note does appear, a court is required to consider the revision note in interpreting the change.

SECTION 3—ENACTMENT OF TITLE 57, UNITED STATES CODE

Section 3(a) of the bill enacts title 57, United States Code, and section 3(b) restates source law criminal provisions that relate to title 57 provisions in title 18 of the Code. For each section of title 57 and for the section restated in title 18, the source law citations, along with any revision notes, are set out below. In the revision notes, where language is quoted from a source provision, the enacted language, as it appears in the Statutes at Large rather than in the United States Code, is shown. This is because language appearing in a non-positive law title of the United States Code may vary slightly from the enacted language as necessary to integrate the source provision into the United States Code.

TITLE 57 SECTION SOURCE CREDIT TABLES AND REVISION NOTES

TITLE 57—SMALL BUSINESS

The following revisions are made throughout the title:

References to the “Senate Select Committee on Small Business” are changed to the “Committee on Small Business and Entrepreneurship of the Senate” because the name of the Committee on Small Business of the Senate was changed to “Committee on Small Business and Entrepreneurship” (see Senate Resolution No. 123, 107th Congress, June 29, 2001), and previously, the Select Committee on Small Business of the Senate became the Committee on Small Business of the Senate (see Senate Resolution No. 101, 97th Congress, March 25, 1981).

For consistency, references to the “the Administration” are generally changed to “the Administrator” (except when reference is made to the Small Business Administration as an agency), and references to units within the Small Business Administration are generally changed to the head of the unit. The change has no effect on the authority of the Administrator to delegate authority under any provision of law or on the rules that determine whether an agency head may be required to provide testimony in litigation concerning a decision made by a delegee of the agency head.

For consistency, references to a Federal department, executive agency, board, commission, independent establishment, and the like are changed to refer to a “Federal agency”, which is defined to include all except as specified in the definition in 57 U.S.C. 101102.

For consistency, defined terms that may have titlewide applicability are moved to 57 U.S.C. 101102.

References to a “business”, “enterprise”, “firm”, “individual” (in the capacity of a sole proprietorship business concern), or “small business” are changed to “concern” or “small business concern”, as appropriate, for consistency. See revision notes for 57 U.S.C. 103107.

References to a “financial institution” are changed to “lending institution” for consistency in title 57.

References to a “rule or regulation” or “rules and regulations” are changed to “regulation” or “regulations” to eliminate unnecessary words and for clarity.

References to the “Standard Industrial Classification System” are changed to the “North American Industry Classification System”.

References to the “handicapped” are changed to refer to the “disabled” to reflect current terminology.

Provisions that relate solely to an event in the past are omitted. In a provision requiring that an action of continuing effect be taken by a date that has passed, the words that specify the date by which the action was required to have been taken are omitted, and the words describing the action that is of continuing effect are restated with appropriate modification.

The word “may” is substituted for “is authorized to” to eliminate unnecessary words, for clarity, and for consistency in title 57.

The word “shall” is substituted for “is authorized and directed to” to eliminate unnecessary words, for clarity, and for consistency in title 57.

The word “includes” is substituted for “includes, but is not limited to” and similar phrases to eliminate unnecessary words, for clarity, and for consistency in title 57, because “includes” is used only in the sense of inclusion and not in any sense of exclusion.

The word “ensure” is substituted for “assure” or “insure” as necessary for consistency in title 57.

The terms “qualified HUBZone small business concern”, “small business concern” (except as stated in the following note), “small business concern owned and controlled by service-disabled veterans”, “small business concern owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals”, “small business concern owned and controlled by veterans”, and “small business concern owned and controlled by women” appear in alphabetical order to make clear that the order in which the terms appear does not imply any prioritization.

References to a small business concern other than a qualified HUBZone small business concern, small business concern owned and controlled by service-disabled veterans, small business concern owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals, small business concern owned and controlled by veterans, or small business concern owned and controlled by women are preceded by “other” and moved to the end of a list of all types of small business concern to make clear that the term “small business concern” in that context means a small business concern other than a small business concern of a type described in the preceding list.

For consistency in title 57 and to conform to prevailing usage in procurement law, “contracting officer” is substituted for “procurement officer” so that the definition of “contracting officer” in 57 U.S.C. 101102(21) applies.

For consistency in title 57 and to conform to prevailing usage in procurement law, “procuring agency” is substituted for “contracting agency” so that the definition of “procuring agency” in 57 U.S.C. 101102(72) applies.

In subsection (b)(1), in the matter before subparagraph (A), in subsection (c), in the matter before paragraph (1), and in subsection (e), in the matter before paragraph (1), “assist” is substituted for “aid and assist” to eliminate unnecessary words.

In clause (i) of subsection (d)(1)(B), “business firm” is substituted for “business” to provide an antecedent for “those firms” in clause (ii).

In subsection (d)(2), “business development program” is substituted for “Capital Ownership Development Program” each place it appears for consistency in title 57.

In subsection (d)(2)(B)(v), “small business concerns owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals” is substituted for “eligible small businesses” for clarity and consistency in title 57.

The text of several definitions in the Small Business Act limited the meaning of the defined term to a specified provision in the Act, but those terms are not used with any different meaning elsewhere in the Act. In the case of such a defined term, the text limiting the meaning of the term to a specified provision is omitted, and the definition is moved to 57 U.S.C. 101102, the general definitions section, to ensure consistent usage throughout the title, now and in the future. Other defined terms that are of limited applicability are restated in the provisions in which they apply.

Definitions of “accredited lenders program”, “Association”, “business development program”, “certified development company program”, “defense agency”, “disaster assistance program”, “expedited disaster assistance business loan guarantee program”, “export express program”, “export working capital program”, “extraordinary disaster”, “general business loan program”, “HUBZone program”, “immediate disaster assistance program”, “major disaster area”, “microloan program”, “military department”, “new markets venture capital company program”, “premier certified lenders program”, “PRIME program”, “private disaster assistance program”, “procuring agency”, “renewable fuel capital investment pilot program”, “SBA district”, “SBA district office”, “SBA regional office”, “SBIR agency”, “SBIR program”, “SCORE”, “small business development center program”, “small business investment company program”, “STTR agency”, “STTR program”, “subcontractor at any tier”, “surety bond guarantee program”, “women’s business center”, and “women’s business center program” are added for clarity and convenience.

Because of its complexity and because of its central importance to the Small Business Act, section 3(a) of the Act (16 U.S.C. 632(a)), describing what “shall be deemed to be” a small business concern for the purposes of the Act, is restated as a defined term in a separate section of title 57, 57 U.S.C. 101103, along with certain related provisions. In this section, a definition of “small business concern” is added so that the section contains a comprehensive listing of terms of titlewide applicability.

Subsection (c) of section 3 of the Small Business Act (16 U.S.C. 632(c)) contains various provisions relating to qualified employee trusts, including some operative provisions and a defined term, that, with certain other provisions relating to qualified employee trusts, are restated in 57 U.S.C. 205109. In this section, a definition of “qualified employee trust” is added for convenience because the term may potentially have titlewide applicability.

Subsection (p) of section 3 of the Small Business Act (16 U.S.C. 632(p)) contains defined terms relating to historically underutilized business zones that, because of their complexity and because they are not all of titlewide applicability, are restated in 57 U.S.C. 253101. In this section, definitions of “base closure area”, “historically underutilized business zone”, “HUBZone”, “HUBZone small business concern”, “qualified HUBZone small business concern”, “qualified nonmetropolitan county”, and “redesignated area” are added for convenience because the terms may potentially have titlewide applicability.

Sections 7 and 8 of the Small Business Act (16 U.S.C. 636, 637) contain defined terms relating to the business development program that, because of their complexity and because they are not all of titlewide applicability, are restated in 57 U.S.C. 231101. In this section, definitions of “disadvantaged owner”, “economically disadvantaged Indian tribe”, “small business concern owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals”, “socially and economically disadvantaged individual”, and “socially disadvantaged individual” are added for convenience because the terms may potentially have titlewide applicability.

In paragraph (1), “with respect to a contract” and “on the contract” are added for clarity.

In paragraph (7)(A), “food or fiber” is substituted for “food and fiber” for clarity.

In paragraph (7)(E), “any other industry related to agriculture” is substituted for “all other farming and agricultural related industries” to eliminate unnecessary words and for clarity.

In paragraph (33)(D), “biomass (as defined by the Administrator)” is substituted for “biomass” because the definition of “biomass” in paragraph (12) does not apply in paragraph (33)(D).

In paragraph (34), the words “Effective on and after the date the Administrator and the Secretary of Veterans Affairs jointly issue implementing regulations described in section 1832(e) of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2017 (Public Law 114–328, 130 Stat. 2660)” are inserted to reflect the delayed conditional effective date provided for in section 1832(e) of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2017 (Public Law 114–328, 130 Stat. 2660).

In paragraph (43), “guarantee” is substituted for “guaranty” for clarity and for consistency in title 57.

In paragraph (45), “small business concern” is substituted for “business concern” each place it appears for consistency with 57 U.S.C. 221108.

In paragraph (45), in the matter after subparagraph (C), “extraordinary disaster area” is substituted for “disaster area” for clarity.

In paragraph (47), in the matter before subparagraph (A), “Except in subtitles III and IV” is added so that the definition of “Federal agency”, taken from the Small Business Act, applies only in subtitles I and II, which are derived primarily from that Act, and not in subtitles III and IV, which are derived from other Acts.

In paragraph (47)(B)(ii), “Government Accountability Office” is substituted for “General Accounting Office” because of section 8(b) of Pub. L. 108–271, July 7, 2004, 118 Stat. 814.

In paragraph (51), “(including personal property of the owner or lessee of the residential property)” is substituted for “and also includes personal property” for clarity.

In paragraph (57), “lower tier subcontractor” is substituted for “at any tier” to provide a defined term that accurately reflects the definition and is in the same part of speech as the definition.

In paragraph (65), in the matter before subparagraph (A), “non-federally regulated lender” is substituted for “non-federally regulated SBA lender” to conform the defined term to the term used in other provisions of the title.

In paragraph (65), in the matter before subparagraph (A), “(other than a small business lending company)” is added for clarity.

In paragraph (65)(A), “under the general business loan program” is substituted for “under section 7” to provide a more precise reference to the pertinent program.

In paragraph (73)(E), “financial assistance under the general business loan program” is substituted for “financial assistance under this subsection” for clarity.

In paragraph (96), subparagraph (B) carries forward the amendment made by section 1832(a) of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2017 (Public Law 114–328, 130 Stat. 2658), with the delayed conditional effective date provided for by section 1832(e) of that Act (130 Stat. 2660).

In paragraph (96)(B)(iii)(II), in the phrase introducing 3 possible options, the word “earliest” is substituted for “earlier” to correct an error in the law.

In paragraph (98)(A), “or, in the case of any publicly owned business, not less than 51 percent of the stock of which is owned by one or more veterans” is omitted as unnecessary because the subject is covered by the words that precede it.

In paragraph (99), in the matter before subparagraph (A), “start-up or existing” in section 29(a)(3) of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 656(a)(3)) is omitted as unnecessary, and “means” is substituted for “includes” to make clear that the term “small business concern owned and controlled by women” does not include anything other than what is described in paragraph (98).

In paragraph (99)(A), “or, in the case of any publicly owned business, not less than 51 percent of the stock of which is owned by one or more women” is omitted as unnecessary because the subject is covered by the words that precede it.

In paragraph (100), “a small business development center that receives financial assistance under chapter 271” is substituted for “a small business development center described in section 21” because nothing in section 21 of the Small Business Act (15 U.S.C. 648) purports to describe a small business development center.

In paragraph (108), “a binding agreement between a contractor and a person for the person to perform all or part of the work that the contractor undertakes to perform under a contract with another person” is substituted for “a legally binding agreement between a contractor that is already under contract to another party to perform work, and a third party, hereinafter referred to as the subcontractor, for the subcontractor to perform a part, or all, of the work that the contractor has undertaken” to eliminate unnecessary words.

In paragraph (112), the words “Effective on and after the date the Administrator and the Secretary of Veterans Affairs jointly issue implementing regulations described in section 1832(e) of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2017 (Public Law 114–328, 130 Stat. 2660)” are inserted to reflect the delayed conditional effective date provided for in section 1832(e) of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2017 (Public Law 114–328, 130 Stat. 2660).

In paragraph (113), “Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands” is omitted as obsolete. See note at 48 U.S.C. prec. 1681. For continued application of certain laws of the United States in certain cases, see the Covenant to Establish a Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands in Political Union With the United States of America (48 U.S.C. 1801 note), the Compact of Free Association between the Government of the United States of America and the Governments of the Marshall Islands and the Federated States of Micronesia (48 U.S.C. 1901 note), and the Compact of Free Association between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Palau (48 U.S.C. 1931 note).

Throughout this section, references to individual “small businesses” are changed to “small business concerns” notwithstanding that the provision from which the section is derived was enacted as part of Pub. L. 94–305 and not as part of the Small Business Act, for consistency in title 57 and in the absence of any indication that Congress intended the term “small businesses” (as used in Pub. L. 94–305 to refer to individual small businesses rather than to the small business community as a whole) to refer to anything other than small business concerns under the Small Business Act.

In subsection (a), definitions of “Chief Counsel” and “Office” are added for clarity and convenience.

Subsection (a) revises 15 U.S.C. 633(c) generally to reflect the practice following elimination of revolving funds by the Federal Credit Reform Act of 1990 (2 U.S.C. 661 et seq.).

In subsection (a)(3), “a report” is substituted for “a full and complete report” to eliminate unnecessary words.

In subsection (a)(4)(D), “chapter 31 of title 31” and “that chapter” are substituted for “the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended” and “such Act, as amended,” respectively, because of Pub. Definitions of “Associate Administrator”, “business plan”, “Division”, “Director”, “program”, “program participant”, and “program participation period” are added for clarity and convenience.

In paragraph (15)(A), “small business concern owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals” is substituted for “socially and economically disadvantaged small business concern” for clarity and consistency in title 57. Both terms were introduced in the Small Business Act by Pub. L. 95–507, with identical definitions. See section 8(a)(4) of the Small Business Act, as enacted by section 202(a) of Pub. L. 95–507 (92 Stat. 1762), and the 2d sentence of subclause (C) of the contract clause required under section 8(d)(3) of the Small Business Act, as enacted by section 211 of Pub. L. 95–507 (92 Stat. 1767). Although the definition of “small business concern owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals” literally applied only in the contract clause required by section 8(d)(3), the amendments made by Pub. L. 95–507 to sections 2 and 8 of the Small Business Act used that term interchangeably with the term “socially and economically disadvantaged small business concern”, with no apparent intended difference in meaning. Section 18015 of Pub. L. 99–272 amended the definition of the former term, in what was described as a clarification, to address the treatment of Indian tribes (100 Stat. 370), and section 207(c) of Pub. L. 100–656 amended the definition of the former term, in what was described as a clarification, to address the treatment of Native Hawaiian organizations (102 Stat. 3861). Neither amendment made the appropriate conforming amendment to the term in the contract clause in section

8(d)(3) of the Small Business Act, but the Small Business Administration interprets the term to provide for the same treatment of Indian tribes and Native Hawaiian organizations. See section 124.1002(b)(3) of title 13, Code of Federal Regulations. Paragraph (64) of this section resolves the ambiguities created by the foregoing history by adopting the term that appears most frequently in the Small Business Act with the definition that appears in section 8(a)(4) of the Act.

In paragraph (15)(A), clause (ii) of 15 U.S.C. 637(a)(4)(A) is omitted as unnecessary because the subject is covered by the words that precede it.

In paragraph (15)(B), “the size of a concern owned by an economically disadvantaged Indian tribe (or a wholly owned business entity of an economically disadvantaged Indian tribe)” is substituted for “the size of a small business concern owned by a socially and economically disadvantaged Indian tribe (or a wholly owned business entity of such tribe)” for clarity and to eliminate unnecessary words.

At the end of paragraph (15), clause (ii) of 15 U.S.C. 637(a)(4)(A) is omitted as unnecessary because the subject is covered by the words that precede it.

In paragraph (16), “socially and economically disadvantaged individual” is substituted for “economically disadvantaged individual” for clarity because 15 U.S.C. 637(a)(6)(A) includes the requirement that an individual be socially disadvantaged to qualify as an economically disadvantaged individual.

In paragraph (18), “prior to the expiration of the program participant’s program participation period” is substituted for “prior to the expiration of the maximum program participation term” for clarity.

In subsection (b)(2), “An employee of the Administration whose participation in a violation of paragraph (1) is directed or solicited shall expeditiously report the direction or solicitation to the Inspector General of the Administration” is substituted for “Employees of the Administration shall expeditiously report to the Inspector General of the Administration any such action for which such employee’s participation has been solicited or directed” for clarity.

Division B—Investment ProgramsChapter 303—Small Business Investment Company Program

Throughout the chapter, references to “this Act” and “this title” are changed to “this chapter” or “this subchapter”, as appropriate, to make clear the unit to which reference is intended to be made.

Throughout the chapter, references to a “small business investment company” are changed to “company” (before a license is issued to a company) or “licensee” (after a license is issued to a company) in appropriate places for consistency and clarity, to avoid the inference that the law contemplates the existence of a nonlicensed small business investment company.

Throughout the chapter, references to a “company”, meaning a company that has been issued a license, are changed to “licensee” for consistency and clarity.
