CHAPTER 341

JOINT RESOLUTION

Establishing in the Treasury of the United States a revolving fund within the contingent fund of the House of Representatives.

August 7, 1953
[H. J. Res. 316]

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there is hereby established in the Treasury of the United States, a revolving fund within the contingent fund of the House of Representatives for a joint Senate and House Recording Facility (hereinafter referred to as the Facility), for the purpose of administering the duties of the Facility.

(a) All balances of the Facility on hand on the date of enactment of this joint resolution and all monies hereafter received by the Facility from sales or rentals, the sale of any equipment, or from any other source, shall be deposited in the revolving fund by the Clerk of the House of Representatives and shall be available for disbursement from said revolving fund by the Clerk of the House, for the care, maintenance, operation, and other expenses of the Facility, upon vouchers signed jointly by the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives.

(b) The coordinator of the Facility shall give bond to the Clerk of the House of Representatives with one or more sureties, in the penal sum of $20,000, with condition for the faithful performance of his duties and the preservation and security of all property in his care.

Approved August 7, 1953.
