Public Law 85-803

AN ACT

To amend the Hawaiian Organic Act, and to approve amendments of the Hawaiian land laws, with respect to leases and other dispositions of land.

August 28, 1958
[H. R. 9445]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 73 (d) of the Hawaiian Organic Act, as amended (48 U. S. C. 665), is further amended (1) by inserting in the first sentence thereof, immediately following the words “No lease of”, the words “the surface of”; (2) by striking out the words “fifteen years” and inserting in lieu thereof the words “sixty-five years”; (3) by striking out from the fourth sentence thereof the words “in which case the rent reserved shall be reduced in proportion to the value of the part so withdrawn” and inserting in lieu thereof the words “upon the payment of just compensation for such withdrawal”; and (4) by striking out the last two sentences therein and inserting in lieu thereof the following: “Every such lease shall contain a provision to that effect: Provided, That the Commissioner may, with the approval of the Governor and at least two-thirds of the members of the Land Board, omit such withdrawal provision from, or limit the same in, the lease of any lands whenever he deems it advantageous to the Territory of Hawaii, and land so leased shall not be subject to such right of withdrawal, or shall be subject only to a right of withdrawal as limited in the lease.”
