AN ACT

To disclaim any interest on the part of the United States in certain lands in the State of Colorado, and for other purposes.

June 23, 1959
[H. R. 3454]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the United States hereby disclaims any right, title, or interest in and to the lands within those portions of the west half and the southeast quarter of section 12, township 18 south, range 43 west, sixth principal meridian, Colorado, which are shown on the official plat of survey approved August 18, 1881, by Albert Johnson, then United States surveyor general of Colorado, as covered by a body of water designated Lake Albert. If, notwithstanding this disclaimer, it be held that the United States has any right, title, or interest in and to said lands, the United States hereby quitclaims the same to the successors in interest of the person or persons to whom patent was issued for the remainder of the lands within said west half and southeast quarter.
