SEC. 2. The Secretary shall require the deposit of a sum of money which he deems sufficient to cover estimated administrative costs of this Act. If a conveyance is not made pursuant to this Act, and the Administrative costs exceed the deposit, the Secretary shall bill the applicant for the outstanding amount, but if the amount of the deposit exceeds the actual administrative costs, the Secretary shall refund the excess.

Administrative costs, payments.

SEC. 3. No conveyance shall be made unless application for conveyance is filed with the Secretary within six months of the date of approval of this Act and unless within the time specified by him payment is made to the Secretary of (1) administrative costs of the conveyance and (2) the fair market value of the interest to be conveyed. The amount of the payment required shall be the difference between the amount deposited and the full amount required to be paid under this section. If the amount deposited exceeds the full amount required to be paid, the applicant shall be given a credit or refund for the excess.

Application, filing date.

SEC. 4. The term "administrative costs", as used in this Act, includes, but is not limited to, all costs of (1) conducting an exploratory program to determine the character of the phosphate deposits in the land, (2) evaluating the data obtained under the exploratory program to determine the fair market value of the phosphate rights to be conveyed, and (3) preparing and issuing the instrument of conveyance.

"Administrative costs."

SEC. 5. Moneys paid to the Secretary for administrative costs shall be paid to the agency which rendered the service, and deposited to the appropriation then current. Moneys paid for the phosphate or phosphate interests conveyed shall be deposited into the general fund of the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

AN ACT

To authorize additional appropriations to carry out the Peace Corps Act, and for other purposes.

June 1, 1974
[H. R. 12920]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That so much of section 3(b) of the Peace Corps Act (22 U.S.C. 2502(b)) as precedes the first proviso thereof is amended to read as follows: "There are authorized to be appropriated for fiscal year 1975 not to exceed $82,256,000 to carry out the purposes of this Act:—"

Peace Corps Act, amendments.

SEC. 2. Section 3 of the Peace Corps Act (22 U.S.C. 2502) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsections:

Salary and benefits, increase.

"(c) In addition to the amounts authorized for fiscal year 1975, there are authorized to be appropriated for the Peace Corps for fiscal year 1975 not in excess of $1,000,000 for increases in salary, pay, retirement, or other employee benefits authorized by law.

"(d) The Director of ACTION is authorized to transfer to the readjustment allowance, ACTION, account at the Treasury Department from any sums appropriated to carry out the purposes of this Act in fiscal year 1975 not to exceed $315,000 to rectify the imbalance in the Peace Corps readjustment allowance account for the period March 1, 1961, to February 28, 1973.

“(e) The Director of ACTION is authorized to waive claims resulting from erroneous payments of readjustment allowances to Peace Corps Volunteers who terminated their volunteer service between March 1, 1961, and February 28, 1973, notwithstanding the provisions of section 5584 of title 5, United States Code, and notwithstanding the fact that the names of the recipients of such overpayments may be unknown.

“(f) Disbursing and certifying officers of the Peace Corps and ACTION are relieved from liability for improper or incorrect payments of readjustment allowances made to volunteers between March 1, 1961, and February 28, 1973, other than any cases known to have resulted from fraud, notwithstanding the provisions of the first section of the Act entitled ‘An Act to provide permanent authority for the relief of certain disbursing officers, and for other purposes’, approved August 11, 1955 (31 U.S.C. 82a-2), and of section 2 of the Act entitled ‘An Act to fix the responsibilities of disbursing and certifying officers, and for other purposes’, approved December 29, 1941 (31 U.S.C. 82c).”

AN ACT

To amend the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act, as amended, to provide for collection of special recreation use fees at additional campgrounds, and for other purposes.

Federal recreation areas.
Fees.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 4 of the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act of 1965 (78 Stat. 897), as amended (16 U.S.C. 4601-6a), is further amended as follows;

(a) The heading of the section is revised to read:

“ADMISSION AND USE FEES; ESTABLISHMENT AND REGULATIONS”.

(b) The second sentence of section 4(a) is amended to read: “No admission fees of any kind shall be charged or imposed for entrance into any other federally owned areas which are operated and maintained by a Federal agency and used for outdoor recreation purposes.”

(c) Subsection (a) (1) is revised to read:

“(1) For admission into any such designated area, an annual admission permit (to be known as the Golden Eagle Passport) shall be available, for a fee of not more than $10. The permittee and any person accompanying him in a single, private, noncommercial vehicle, or alternatively, the permittee and his spouse, children, and parents accompanying him where entry to the area is by any means other than private, noncommercial vehicle, shall be entitled to general admission into any area designated pursuant to this subsection. The annual permit shall be valid during the calendar year for which the annual fee is paid. The annual permit shall not authorize any uses for which additional fees are charged pursuant to subsections (b) and (c) of this section. The annual permit shall be nontransferable and the unlawful use thereof shall be punishable in accordance with regulations established pursuant to subsection (e). The annual permit shall be available for purchase at any such designated area.”
