Public Buildings
Cooperative Use
Act of 1976.
40 USC 601 note.
40 USC 601a.

TITLE I

SEC. 101. This title may be cited as the "Public Buildings Cooperative Use Act of 1976".

SEC. 102. (a) In order to carry out his duties under this title and under any other authority with respect to constructing, operating, maintaining, altering, and otherwise managing or acquiring space necessary for the accommodation of Federal agencies and to accomplish the purposes of this title, the Administrator shall—

(1) acquire and utilize space in suitable buildings of historic, architectural, or cultural significance, unless use of such space would not prove feasible and prudent compared with available alternatives;

(2) encourage the location of commercial, cultural, educational, and recreational facilities and activities within public buildings;

(3) provide and maintain space, facilities, and activities, to the extent practicable, which encourage public access to and stimulate public pedestrian traffic around, into, and through public buildings, permitting cooperative improvements to and uses of the area between the building and the street, so that such activities complement and supplement commercial, cultural, educational, and recreational resources in the neighborhood of public buildings; and

(4) encourage the public use of public buildings for cultural, educational, and recreational activities.

(b) In carrying out his duties under subsection (a) of this section, the Administrator shall consult with Governors, area-wide agencies established pursuant to title II of the Demonstration Cities and Metropolitan Development Act of 1966 and title IV of the Intergovernmental Cooperation Act of 1968, and chief executive officers of those units of general local government in each area served by an existing or proposed public building, and shall solicit the comments of such other community leaders and members of the general public as he deems appropriate.

42 USC 3331.
42 USC 4231.

SEC. 103. The Public Buildings Act of 1959 is amended—

(1) by striking out at the end of section 7(a) (3) the word "buildings;" and inserting in lieu thereof "buildings, especially such of those buildings as enhance the architectural, historical, social, cultural, and economic environment of the locality;"

40 USC 606.

(2) by striking out "and" at the end of section 7(a) (4), by redesignating section 7(a) (5) as section 7(a) (6), and by inserting the following new section 7(a) (5) :

40 USC 611. “(5) a statement by the Administrator of the economic and other justifications for not acquiring or purchasing a building or buildings identified to the Administrator pursuant to section 12(c) of this Act as suitable for the public building needs of the Federal Government; and”; and

(3) by redesignating section 12(c) and section 12(d) and all references thereto as section 12(d) and section 12(e), respectively, and by inserting after section 12(b) the following new section 12(c):

“(c) Whenever the Administrator undertakes a survey of the public buildings needs of the Federal Government within a geographical area, he shall request that, within sixty days, the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation established by title II of the Act of October 15, 1966 (16 U.S.C. 470i), identify any existing buildings within such geographical area that (1) are of historic, architectural, or cultural significance (as defined in section 105 of the Public Buildings Cooperative Use Act of 1976) and (2) would be suitable, whether or not in need of repair, alteration, or addition, for acquisition or purchase to meet the public buildings needs of the Federal Government.”

Post, p. 2507.

40 USC 490.

SEC. 104. (a) Section 210(a) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 is amended by striking out “and” at the end of paragraph (14), by striking out the period at the end of paragraph (15) and inserting in lieu thereof a semicolon, and by adding after such paragraph the following new paragraphs:

“(16) to enter into leases of space on major pedestrian access levels and courtyards and rooftops of any public building with persons, firms, or organizations engaged in commercial, cultural, educational, or recreational activities (as defined in section 105 of the Public Buildings Cooperative Use Act of 1976). The Administrator shall establish a rental rate for such leased space equivalent to the prevailing commercial rate for comparable space devoted to a similar purpose in the vicinity of the public building. Such leases may be negotiated without competitive bids, but shall contain such terms and conditions and be negotiated pursuant to such procedures as the Administrator deems necessary to promote competition and to protect the public interest;

“(17) to make available, on occasion, or to lease at such rates and on such other terms and conditions as the Administrator deems to be in the public interest, auditoriums, meeting rooms, courtyards, rooftops, and lobbies of public buildings to persons, firms, or organizations engaged in cultural, educational, or recreational activities (as defined in section 105 of the Public Buildings Cooperative Use Act of 1976) that will not disrupt the operation of the building;

“(18) to deposit into the fund established by subsection (f) of this section all sums received under leases or rentals executed pursuant to paragraphs (16) and (17) of this subsection, and each sum shall be credited to the appropriation made for such fund applicable to the operation of such building; and

“(19) to furnish utilities, maintenance, repair, and other services to persons, firms, or organizations leasing space pursuant to paragraphs (16) and (17) of this subsection. Such services may be provided during and outside of regular working hours of Federal agencies.”

(b) The Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 is amended by adding at the end of section 210(e) the following: “The Administrator shall, where practicable, give priority in the assignment of space on any major pedestrian access level not leased under the terms of subsection (a) (16) or (a) (17) of this section in such buildings to Federal activities requiring regular contact with members of the public. To the extent such space is unavailable, the Administrator shall provide space with maximum ease of access to building entrances.”

SEC. 105. As used in this title and in the amendments made by this title—
