

Public Law 97-276
97th Congress

Joint Resolution

Oct. 2, 1982

[H.J. Res. 599]

Continuing appropriations for fiscal year
1983.

Making continuing appropriations for the fiscal year 1983, and for other purposes.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums are hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and out of applicable corporate or other revenues, receipts, and funds, for the several departments, agencies, corporations, and other organizational units of the Government for the fiscal year 1983, and for other purposes, namely:

SEC. 101. (a)(1) Such amounts as may be necessary for continuing projects or activities (not otherwise specifically provided for in this joint resolution) which were conducted in the fiscal year 1982 and for which appropriations, funds, or other authority would be available in the following appropriations Acts:

Agriculture, Rural Development, and Related Agencies Appropriation Act, 1983;

Departments of Commerce, Justice, and State, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriation Act, 1983;

District of Columbia Appropriation Act, 1983;

Department of Transportation and Related Agencies Appropriation Act, 1983; and Treasury, Postal Service and General Government Appropriation Act, 1983.

(2) Appropriations made by this subsection shall be available to the extent and in the manner which would be provided by the pertinent appropriation Act.

(3) Whenever the amount which would be made available or the authority which would be granted under an Act listed in this subsection as passed the House as of October 1, 1982, is different from that which would be available or granted under such Act as passed by the Senate as of October 1, 1982, the pertinent project or activity shall be continued under the lesser amount or the more restrictive authority: Provided, That where an item is included in only one version of an Act as passed by both Houses as of October 1, 1982, the pertinent project or activity shall be continued under the appropriation, fund, or authority granted by the one House, but at a rate for operations of the current rate or the rate permitted by the action of the one House, whichever is lower, and under the authority and conditions provided in applicable appropriation Acts for the fiscal year 1982: Provided further, That for the purposes of this joint resolution, when an Act listed in this subsection has been reported to the House or the Senate but not passed by that House as of October 1, 1982, it shall be deemed as having been passed by that House.

(4) Whenever an Act listed in this subsection has been passed by only the House as of October 1, 1982, the pertinent project or activity shall be continued under the appropriation, fund, or authority granted by the House, but at a rate for operations of the current rate or the rate permitted by the action of the House, whichever is lower, and under the authority and conditions provided in applicable appropriation Acts for the fiscal year 1982.

(5) No provision which is included in an appropriation Act enumerated in this subsection but which was not included in the applicable appropriation Act of 1982, and which by its terms is applicable to more than one appropriation, fund, or authority shall be applicable to any appropriation, fund, or authority provided in the joint resolution unless such provision shall have been included in identical form in such bill as enacted by both the House and the Senate.

(b) Such amounts as may be necessary for continuing the following activities, not otherwise provided for, which were conducted in the fiscal year 1982, under the current terms and conditions and at a rate to maintain current operating levels:

activities under the purview of the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, and Related Agencies Appropriation Act, 1982, as provided for in Public Law 97-92; and activities, including those activities conducted pursuant to section 167 of the Energy Policy and Conservation Act of 1975 (Public Law 94-163), as amended, for which provision was made in the Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriation Act, 1982: Provided, That no programs or facilities funded therein may be terminated unless such termination is specifically approved in the appropriations process, including reprogramming.

(c) Pending passage of the regular Department of Defense Appropriation Act for fiscal year 1983, such amounts as may be necessary for continuing activities which were conducted in the fiscal year 1982, for which provision was made in the Department of Defense Appropriation Act, 1982, but such activities shall be funded at not to exceed an annual rate for new obligational authority of $228,700,000,000, which is an increase above the current level, and this increase shall be distributed on a pro-rata basis to each appropriation account and shall operate under the terms and conditions provided for in the applicable appropriation Acts for the fiscal year 1982: Provided, That no appropriation or fund made available or authority granted pursuant to this paragraph shall be used to initiate or resume any project or activity for which appropriations, funds or other authority were not available during the fiscal year 1982; this limitation shall include but not be limited to prohibitions on funding availability for initial production of the MX intercontinental ballistic missile and for long lead or initial production of a second nuclear-powered aircraft carrier until midnight December 17, 1982; and in addition, this limitation shall include the lower appropriation or funding ceilings for specific projects and activities set forth in the Department of Defense Appropriation Act, 1983, as reported to the Senate on September 23, 1982, or as subsequently reported to the House of Representatives: Provided further, That no appropriation or fund made available or authority granted pursuant to this paragraph shall be used to initiate multiyear procurements utilizing advance procurement funding for economic order quantity procurement unless specifically appropriated later except for the following programs and amounts; AN/ALQ-136 Radar Jamming Systems, $14,500,000; NATO Seasparrow Ordalt Kits, $33,000,000;

95 Stat. 1565.

continue the purchase of C-2 aircraft under a multiyear contract, $267,800,000: Provided further, That none of the funds appropriated or made available pursuant to this paragraph for the pay of members of the uniformed services shall be available to pay any member of the uniformed services a variable housing allowance pursuant to section 403(a)(2) of title 37, United States Code, in an amount that is greater than the amount which would have been payable to such member if the rates of basic allowance for quarters for members of the uniformed services in effect on September 30, 1982, had been increased by 8 per centum on October 1, 1982: Provided further, That pending passage of the regular Department of Defense Appropriation Act for fiscal year 1983, none of the funds appropriated or made available pursuant to this paragraph shall be available for the additional conversion of any full time personnel in support of the Army Reserve, Air Force Reserve, Army National Guard, and Air National Guard, from military technician to Active Guard/Reserve status: Provided further, That none of the funds appropriated or made available pursuant to this paragraph, except for small purchases in amounts not exceeding $10,000, shall be available for the procurement of any article of food, clothing, cotton, woven silk or woven silk blends, spun silk yarn for cartridge cloth, synthetic fabric or coated synthetic fabric, or wool (whether in the form of fiber or yarn or contained in fabrics, materials, or manufactured articles), or specialty metals including stainless steel flatware, not grown, reprocessed, reused, or produced in the United States or its possessions, except to the extent that the Secretary of the Department concerned shall determine that satisfactory quality and sufficient quantity of any articles of food or clothing or any form of cotton, woven silk and woven silk blends, spun silk yarn for cartridge cloth, synthetic fabric or coated synthetic fabric, wool, or specialty metals including stainless steel flatware, grown, reprocessed, reused, or produced in the United States or its possessions cannot be procured as and when needed at United States market prices and except procurements outside the United States in support of combat operations, procurements by vessels in foreign waters, and emergency procurements or procurements of perishable foods by establishments located outside the United States for the personnel attached thereto; Nothing in this provision shall preclude the procurement of foreign produced specialty metals used in the production or manufacture of weapons or weapons systems made outside the United States except those specialty metals which contain nickel from Cuba, or the procurement of chemical warfare protective clothing produced outside the United States, if such procurement is necessary to comply with agreements with foreign governments; Nothing herein shall preclude the procurement of foods manufactured or processed in the United States or its possessions; No funds appropriated or made available pursuant to this paragraph shall be used for the payment of a price differential on contracts hereafter made for the purpose of relieving economic dislocations other than certain contracts not involving fuel made on a test basis by the Defense Logistics Agency with a cumulative value not to exceed $5,000,000,000, as may be determined by the Secretary of Defense pursuant to existing laws and regulations as not to be inappropriate therefor by reason of national security considerations; That the Secretary specifically determines that there is a reasonable expectation that offers will be obtained from a sufficient number of eligible concerns so that awards of such contracts will be made at a reasonable price and that no award shall be made for such contracts if the price differential exceeds 5 per centum; None of the funds appropriated or made available pursuant to this paragraph shall be used except that, so far as practicable, all contracts shall be awarded on a formally advertised competitive bid basis to the lowest responsible bidder.

(d) Such amounts as may be necessary for continuing the activities of the Foreign Assistance Appropriations Act of 1982, Public Law 97-121, under the terms and conditions, and at the rate, provided for in that Act or at the rate provided for in the budget estimates, whichever is lower, and under the more restrictive authority, notwithstanding section 10 of Public Law 91-672, and section 15(a) of the State Department Basic Authorities Act of 1956, or any other provision of law: Provided, That amounts allocated to each country under this paragraph shall not exceed those provided in fiscal year 1982 unless submitted through the regular reprogramming procedures of the Committees on Appropriations: Provided further, That economic and military assistance shall be available to Israel at the rate provided by, and under the terms and conditions of, Public Law 97-113.

95 Stat. 1647.

22 USC 2412.
22 USC 2680.

(e) Notwithstanding section 102 of this joint resolution, such amounts as may be necessary for continuing projects and activities under all the conditions and to the extent and in the manner as provided in S. 2939, entitled the Legislative Branch Appropriation Act, 1983, as reported September 22, 1982, and the provisions of S. 2939 shall be effective as if enacted into law; except that the provisions of section 306 (a), (b), and (d) of S. 2939 shall apply to any appropriation, fund, or authority made available for the period October 1, 1982, through December 17, 1982, by this or any other Act.

95 Stat. 1519.
22 USC 2151
note.

5 USC 5318 note.

For purposes of this subsection, S. 2939, as reported September 22, 1982, shall be treated as appropriating the following amounts:

Under the headings "JOINT ITEMS", "CONTINGENT EXPENSES OF THE SENATE", "Joint Economic Committee", $2,327,000, and "CONTINGENT EXPENSES OF THE HOUSE", "Joint Committee on Taxation", $3,233,000; under the headings "CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE", "SALARIES AND EXPENSES", $14,825,000; under the headings "ARCHITECT OF THE CAPITOL", "Salaries", $4,301,000; under the headings "COPYRIGHT ROYALTY TRIBUNAL", "SALARIES AND EXPENSES", $606,000, of which $157,000 shall be derived from the appropriation "Payments to Copyright Owners" for the reasonable costs incurred in proceedings involving distribution of royalty fees as provided by 17 U.S.C. 807; under the headings "GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE", "SALARIES AND EXPENSES", $244,900,000.

For purposes of this subsection, S. 2939 shall be applied as follows:

The limitation on the number of staff employees of the Congressional Budget Office contained in S. 2939 shall be applied by substituting "222 staff employees" for "226 staff employees";

The fourth proviso under the headings "GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE", "GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE REVOLVING FUND", relating to travel expenses of advisory councils to the Public Printer, contained in S. 2939 shall be effective only for fiscal year 1983. Notwithstanding any other provision of this joint resolution, for payment to Patricia Ann Benjamin, wife of Adam Benjamin, Junior, late a Representative from the State of Indiana, $60,663.

(f) Such amounts are available as may be necessary for projects or activities provided for in H.R. 6968, the Military Construction Appropriations Act, 1983, as passed the House on August 19, 1982, at a rate for operations and to the extent and in the manner provided for in such Act: Provided, That notwithstanding the foregoing provision of this paragraph and not withstanding any other provision of this joint resolution, such amounts as may be necessary for projects or activities provided for in the Military Construction Act, 1983 (H.R. 6968), at a rate for operations and to the extent and in the manner provided for in the conference report and joint explanatory statement of the committee of conference as filed in the House of Representatives on September 30, 1982, as if such Act had been enacted into law.

95 Stat. 1135.

(g) Such amounts as may be necessary for continuing activities which were conducted in fiscal year 1982, for which provision was made in the Energy and Water Development Act, 1982, at the current rate of operations: Provided, That no appropriation, fund or authority made available by this joint resolution or any other Act may be used directly or indirectly to significantly alter, modify, dismantle, or otherwise change the normal operation and maintenance required for any civil works project under Department of Defense-Civil, Department of the Army, Corps of Engineers-Civil, Operation and Maintenance, General, and the operation and maintenance activities funded in Flood Control, Mississippi River and Tributaries: Provided further, That no appropriation or fund made available or authority granted pursuant to this paragraph shall be used to initiate or resume any project or activity for which appropriations, funds, or other authority were not available during the fiscal year 1982 without prior approval of the Committees on Appropriations: Provided further, That no appropriation, fund or authority made available to the Department of Energy by this joint resolution or any other Act, shall be used for any action which would result in a significant reduction of the employment levels for any program or activity below the employment levels in effect on September 30, 1982.

Funding availability.

SEC. 102. Appropriations and funds made available and authority granted pursuant to this joint resolution shall be available from October 1, 1982, and shall remain available until (a) enactment into law of an appropriation for any project or activity provided for in this joint resolution, or (b) enactment of the applicable appropriation Act by both Houses without any provision for such project or activity, or (c) December 17, 1982, whichever first occurs.

SEC. 103. Appropriations made and authority granted pursuant to this joint resolution shall cover all obligations or expenditures incurred for any project or activity during the period for which funds or authority for such projects or activity are available under this joint resolution.

SEC. 104. Expenditures made pursuant to this joint resolution shall be charged to the applicable appropriation, fund, or authorization whenever a bill in which such applicable appropriation, fund, or authorization is contained is enacted into law.

Ante, p. 928.

SEC. 105. Any appropriation for the fiscal year 1983 required to be apportioned pursuant to subchapter II of chapter 15 of title 31, United States Code, may be apportioned on a basis indicating the need (to the extent any such increases cannot be absorbed within available appropriations) for a supplemental or deficiency estimate of appropriation to the extent necessary to permit payment of such pay increases as may be granted pursuant to law to civilian officers and employees and to active and retired military personnel. Each such appropriation shall otherwise be subject to the requirements of subchapter II of chapter 15 of title 31, United States Code.

Ante, p. 928.

SEC. 106. In accordance with Public Law 97-257 of September 10, 1982, not to exceed an annual rate of $13,500,000 from the fees collected and credited to the "Salaries and Expenses" appropriation of the Federal Bureau of Investigation to process fingerprint identification records for noncriminal employment and licensing services, shall be available for salaries and other expenses incurred in providing such services.

Ante, p. 818.

SEC. 107. Notwithstanding any other provision of this joint resolution, the New England Division of the United States Army Corps of Engineers shall be maintained as a Division with all of the duties and functions of a Division retained and shall not be redesignated a District or any other type office, other than Division.

SEC. 108. Of amounts appropriated for the Water Resources Council, Water Resources Planning, for preparation of assessments and plans, in Public Law 97-88, not more than $195,000 shall remain available until expended and shall be available to pay for work performed prior to fiscal year 1982 in support of the Columbia River Estuary Data Development Program, if such work is accepted by the Water Resources Council.

95 Stat. 1148.

SEC. 109. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no part of any of the funds appropriated for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983, by this Act or any other Act, may be used to pay any prevailing rate employee described in section 5342(a)(2)(A) of title 5, United States Code, or an employee covered by section 5348 of that title, in an amount which exceeds—

5 USC 5343 note.

(1) for the period from October 1, 1982, until the next applicable wage survey adjustment becomes effective, the rate which was payable for the applicable grade and step to such employee under the applicable wage schedule that was in effect and payable on September 30, 1982; and

5 USC 5348.

(2) for the period consisting of the remainder of the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983, a rate which exceeds, as a result of a wage survey adjustment, the rate payable under paragraph (1) of this subsection by more than the overall average percentage of the adjustment in the General Schedule during the fiscal year ending September 30, 1983.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 9(b) of Public Law 92-392 or section 704(b) of the Civil Service Reform Act of 1978, the provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall apply (in such manner as the Office of Personnel Management shall prescribe) to prevailing rate employees to whom such section 9(b) applies, except that the provisions of subsection (a) may not apply to any increase in a wage schedule or rate which is required by the terms of a contract entered into before the date of enactment of this Act.

5 USC 5343 note.

(c) For the purposes of subsection (a) of this section, the rate payable to any employee who is covered by this section and who is paid from a schedule which was not in existence on September 30, 1982, shall be determined under regulations prescribed by the President.

Regulations.

(d) The provisions of this section shall apply only with respect to pay for services performed by affected employees after the date of enactment of this Act.

(e) For the purpose of administering any provision of law, rule, or regulation which provides premium pay, retirement, life insurance, or any other employee benefit, which requires any deduction or contribution, or which imposes any requirement or limitation, on the basis of a rate of salary or basic pay, the rate of salary or basic pay payable after the application of this section shall be treated as the rate of salary or basic pay.

Space and services
rental.

40 USC 490.

SEC. 110. No part of any appropriation contained in, or funds made available by this or any other Act, shall be available for any agency to pay to the Administrator of the General Services Administration a higher rate per square foot for rental of space and services (established pursuant to section 210(j) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended) than the rate per square foot established for the space and services by the General Services Administration for the current fiscal year and for which appropriations were granted: Provided, That no part of any appropriation contained in, or funds made available by this or any other Act, shall be available for any agency to pay to the Administrator of the General Services Administration a higher rate per square foot for rental space and services (established pursuant to section 210(j) of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949, as amended) than the rate per square foot established for the space and services by the General Services Administration for the fiscal year 1982: Provided further, That the limitations of this section shall terminate on December 17, 1982.

Federal lands,
disposal.

47 FR 8547.

SEC. 111. Except as expressly provided for by law, none of the funds provided in this joint resolution shall be obligated to dispose, except by exchange, of any Federal land tract or lands with national environmental or economic value until such time as the General Services Administration, the Property Review Board, or other agencies as required under Executive Order 12348 has specifically identified them as no longer being needed by the Federal Government; inventoried them as to their public benefit values; provided opportunity for public review and discussion of the property proposed for disposal; and provided 30 days advance notice of the property proposed for disposal and of the plans for carrying out such disposal to the congressional delegation of the State or States in which the tract proposed for sale is located and to the appropriate congressional committees for immediate printing in the Congressional Record: Provided, That neither the Act of July 31, 1958 as amended (72 Stat. 438, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1012a; 16 U.S.C. 478a) nor the Act of June 14, 1926, as amended (43 U.S.C. 869 et seq.) shall be subject to the provisions of this section.

50 USC 98d.

50 USC 98e.

SEC. 112. Notwithstanding any other provision of this joint resolution except section 102, moneys deposited into the National Defense Stockpile Transaction Fund under section 9(b) of the Strategic and Critical Materials Stock Piling Act (50 U.S.C. 98h(b)) are hereby made available, subject to such limitations as may be provided in appropriation Acts and in section 5(a)(1) of such Act, until expended for the acquisition of strategic and critical materials under section 6(a)(1) of such Act (and for transportation and other incidental expenses related to such acquisition). This paragraph applies without fiscal year limitation to moneys deposited into the fund before, on, or after October 1, 1982: Provided, That during the fiscal year ending on September 30, 1983, not more than $120,000,000 in addition to amounts previously appropriated, of which not to exceed $85,000,000 shall be available only until the termination of this joint resolution for the purchase of domestic copper mined and smelted in the United States after September 30, 1982, may be obligated from amounts in the National Defense Stockpile Transaction Fund for the acquisition of strategic and critical materials under section 6(a)(1) of the Strategic and Critical Materials Stock Piling Act (50 U.S.C. 98e(a)(1)) and for transportation and other incidental expenses related to such acquisition.

SEC. 113. Notwithstanding any other provision of this joint resolution, funds available to the Federal Building Fund within the General Services Administration may be used to initiate new construction, purchase, advance design, and repairs and alteration line-item projects which are included in the Treasury, Postal Service and General Government Appropriation Act, 1983, as reported to the House or the Senate.

SEC. 114. (a)(1) Funds provided by this joint resolution for costs to continue the implementation of provisions contained in the District of Columbia Statehood Constitutional Convention Initiative (D.C. Law 3-171) shall be applied first toward ensuring voter education on the proposed constitution by (A) printing, by the Statehood Commission, of the proposed constitution together with objective statements both for and against its provisions as expressed by the Convention delegates taking such positions, (B) mailing of this information to the registered voters of the District of Columbia by October 22, 1982, and (C) preparing for publication as a public document a comprehensive legislative history of the proposed constitution.

(2) None of the funds provided by this joint resolution may be used to pay for the publication of any information or materials by the Statehood Commission which fail to present objective arguments for and against the provisions of the proposed constitution.

(b) Notwithstanding section 102, the paragraph under the heading "LOTTERY AND CHARITABLE GAMES ENTERPRISE FUND" in the District of Columbia Appropriation Act, 1982 (Public Law 97-91; 95 Stat. 1175) is amended—

95 Stat. 1174.

(1) in the second proviso, by striking out "payments of prizes" and inserting in lieu thereof "payment of fees to ticket agents, fees to contractors supplying gambling paraphernalia or services, and prizes";

(2) in the third proviso, by striking out "payments of prizes" and inserting in lieu thereof "payment of such fees and prizes";

(3) in the fourth proviso, by striking out "prizes and administration of the Board shall not exceed resources available to the Board from appropriated authority or revenues" and inserting in lieu thereof "administration of the Board shall not exceed resources available to the Board from appropriated authority: Provided further, That the annual expenses for fees and prizes shall not exceed revenues"; and

(4) in the fifth proviso, by striking out "for prize money" and inserting in lieu thereof "for fees and prize money".

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this resolution, the Superior Court of the District of Columbia may continue to operate the Volunteer Attorney Program and the Community Workers Program, and may implement the hearing commissioner program, from existing resources and position authority. Upon passage of the fiscal year 1983 appropriation Act, full year program funding will be available to pay, retroactively, for program services performed on or after October 1, 1982.

(d) The Washington Convention Center may proceed at an annual rate of operation which does not exceed $5,275,000.

SEC. 115. Notwithstanding any other provision of this joint resolution except section 102, there are appropriated to the Postal Service Fund sufficient amounts so that postal rates for all preferred-rate mailers covered by section 3626 of title 39, United States Code, shall be continued at the rates in effect on July 28, 1982 (step 13): Provided, That mail for overseas voting and mail for the blind shall continue to be free: Provided further, That six-day delivery and rural delivery of mail shall continue at the 1982 level.

note.

SEC. 122. Notwithstanding section 101(a)(3) of this joint resolution, none of the funds provided by this joint resolution for the Legal Services Corporation shall be expended for any purpose prohibited or limited by or contrary to section 4 (a), (b), and (c); section 5; and section 11 of H.R. 3480, as passed the House of Representatives on June 18, 1981: Provided, That none of the funds appropriated under this joint resolution for the Legal Services Corporation shall be expended to provide legal assistance for or on behalf of any alien unless the alien is a resident of the United States and is—

- (1) an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence as an immigrant as defined by sections 101(a)(15) and 101(a)(20) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1101(a) (15), (20));
- (2) an alien who is either married to a United States citizen or is a parent or an unmarried child under the age of twenty-one years of such a citizen and who has filed an application for adjustment of status to permanent resident under the Immigration and Nationality Act, and such application has not been rejected;

8 USC 1101
note.

(3) an alien who is lawfully present in the United States pursuant to an admission under section 207 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1157, relating to refugee admissions) or who has been granted asylum by the Attorney General under such Act; or

(4) an alien who is lawfully present in the United States as a result of the Attorney General's withholding of deportation pursuant to section 243(h) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1253(h)).

An alien who is lawfully present in the United States as a result of being granted conditional entry pursuant to section 203(a)(7) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1153(a)(7)) before April 1, 1980, because of persecution or fear of persecution on account of race, religion, or political opinion or because of being uprooted by catastrophic natural calamity shall be deemed, for purposes of section 1007(b)(11) of the Legal Services Corporation Act, to be an alien described in subparagraph (C) of such section: Provided further, That none of the funds provided by this joint resolution for the Legal Services Corporation shall be used by the Corporation in making grants or entering into contracts for legal assistance unless the Corporation insures that the recipient is either (a) a private attorney or attorneys (for the sole purpose of furnishing legal assistance to eligible clients) or (b) a qualified nonprofit organization chartered under the laws of one of the States for the primary purpose of furnishing legal assistance to eligible clients, the majority of the board of directors or other governing body of which organization is comprised of attorneys who are admitted to practice in one of the States and who are appointed to terms of office on such board or body by the governing bodies of State, county, or municipal bar associations the membership of which represents a majority of the attorneys practicing law in the locality in which the organization is to provide legal assistance: Provided further, That none of the funds appropriated under this joint resolution for the Legal Services Corporation shall be used to bring a class action suit against the Federal Government or any State or local government except in accordance with policies or regulations adopted by the Board of Directors of the Legal Services Corporation.

42 USC 2996f.

SEC. 123. No provision in any appropriation Act for the fiscal year 1983 that makes the availability of any appropriation provided therein dependent upon the enactment of additional authorizing or other legislation shall be effective before the date set forth in section 102(c) of this joint resolution.

SEC. 124. Notwithstanding any other provision of this joint resolution, in the case of any employee of the Federal Government who is indebted to the United States, as determined by a court of the United States in an action or suit brought against such employee by the United States, the amount of the indebtedness may be collected in monthly installments, or at officially established regular pay period intervals, by deduction in reasonable amounts from the current pay account of the individual. The deductions may be made only from basic pay, special pay, incentive pay, or, in the case of an individual not entitled to basic pay, other authorized pay. Collection shall be made over a period not greater than the anticipated period

20 USC 956.

SEC. 151. (a) Section 4109 of title 5, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(c) Notwithstanding subsection (a)(1) of this section, the Administrator, Federal Aviation Administration, may pay an individual training to be an air traffic controller of such Administration, during the period of such training, at the applicable rate of basic pay for the hours of training officially ordered or approved in excess of forty hours in an administrative workweek."

(b) Section 5532 of title 5, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(f)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the retired or retainer pay of a former member of a uniformed service shall not be reduced while such former member is temporarily employed, during the period described in paragraph (2) or any portion thereof, under the administrative authority of the Administrator, Federal Aviation Administration, to perform duties in the operation of the air traffic control system or to train others to perform such duties.

Effective date.

"(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be in effect for any period ending not later than December 31, 1984, during which the Administrator, Federal Aviation Administration, determines that there is an unusual shortage of air traffic controllers performing duties under the administrative authority of such Administrator."

(c)(1) Chapter 55 of title 5, United States Code, is amended by inserting after section 5546 the following new section:

5 USC 5546a.

"§ 5546a. Differential pay for certain employees of the Federal Aviation Administration

"(a) The Administrator of the Federal Aviation Administration (hereafter in this section referred to as the 'Administrator') may pay premium pay at the rate of 5 per centum of the applicable rate of basic pay to—

"(1) any employee of the Federal Aviation Administration who is—

"(A) occupying a position in the air traffic controller series classified not lower than GS-9 and located in an air traffic control center or terminal or in a flight service station;

"(B) assigned to a position classified not lower than GS-09 or WG-10 located in an airway facilities sector; or

"(C) assigned to a flight inspection crew-member position classified not lower than GS-11 located in a flight inspection field office, the duties of whose position are determined by the Administrator to be directly involved in or responsible for the operation and maintenance of the air traffic control system; and

"(2) any employee of the Federal Aviation Administration who is assigned to a flight test pilot position classified not lower than GS-12 located in a region or center, the duties of whose position are determined by the Administrator to be unusually taxing, physically or mentally, and to be critical to the advancement of aviation safety.

“(b) The premium pay payable under any subsection of this section is in addition to basic pay and to premium pay payable under any other subsection of this section and any other provision of this subchapter.”

(2) The analysis of chapter 55 of such title is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 5546 the following new item: “5546a. Differential pay for certain employees of the Federal Aviation Administration.”

(d) Section 5546a of title 5, United States Code (as added by section 152(c) of this joint resolution), is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsections:

“(c)(1) The Administrator may pay premium pay to any employee of the Federal Aviation Administration who—

Premium pay.

“(A) is an air traffic controller located in an air traffic control center or terminal;

“(B) is not required as a condition of employment to be certified by the Administrator as proficient and medically qualified to perform duties including the separation and control of air traffic; and “(C) is so certified.

“(2) Premium pay paid under paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be paid at the rate of 1.6 per centum of the applicable rate of basic pay for so long as such employee is so certified.

“(d)(1) The Administrator may pay premium pay to any air traffic controller of the Federal Aviation Administration who is assigned by the Administrator to provide on-the-job training to another air traffic controller while such other air traffic controller is directly involved in the separation and control of live air traffic.

“(2) Premium pay paid under paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be paid at the rate of 10 per centum of the applicable hourly rate of basic pay times the number of hours and portion of an hour during which the air traffic controller of the Federal Aviation Administration provides on-the-job training.

“(e)(1) The Administrator may pay premium pay to any air traffic controller or flight service station specialist of the Federal Aviation Administration who, while working a regularly scheduled eight-hour period of service, is required by his supervisor to work during the fourth through sixth hour of such period without a break of thirty minutes for a meal.

“(2) Premium pay paid under paragraph (1) of this subsection shall be paid at the rate of 50 per centum of one-half of the applicable hourly rate of basic pay.

“(f)(1) The Administrator shall prescribe standards for determining which air traffic controllers and other employees of the Federal Aviation Administration are to be paid premium pay under this section.

“(2) The Administrator may prescribe such rules as he determines are necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.”

(e) Section 5547 of title 5, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following: “The first sentence of this section shall not apply to any employee of the Federal Aviation Administration who is paid premium pay under section 5546a of this title.”

Ante, p. 1200.

(f) Section 8339(e) of title 5, United States Code, is amended by inserting before the period "unless such employee has received, pursuant to section 8342 of this title, payment of the lump-sum credit attributable to deductions under section 8334(a) of this title during any period of employment as an air traffic controller and such employee has not deposited in the Fund the amount received, with interest, pursuant to section 8334(d) of this title".

5 USC 8342.
5 USC 8334.

(g) Section 8344 of title 5, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(h)(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this subsection, subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this section shall not apply to any annuitant receiving an annuity from the Fund while such annuitant is employed, during any period described in section 5532(f)(2) of this title or any portion thereof, under the administrative authority of the Administrator, Federal Aviation Administration, to perform duties in the operation of the air traffic control system or to train other individuals to perform such duties.

Ante, p. 1200.

"(2) Paragraph (1) of this subsection shall apply only in the case of any annuitant receiving an annuity from the Fund who, before August 3, 1981, applied for retirement or separated from the service while being entitled to an annuity under this chapter."

Effective dates.

Export license.
19 USC 1626.

"SEC. 626. (a) In order to monitor and enforce export measures required by a foreign government or customs union, pursuant to an international arrangement with the United States, the Secretary of the Treasury may, upon receipt of a request by the President of the United States and by a foreign government or customs union, require the presentation of a valid export license or other documents issued by such foreign government or customs union as a condition for entry into the United States of steel mill products specified in the request. The Secretary may provide by regulation for the terms and conditions under which such merchandise attempted to be entered without an accompanying valid export license or other documents may be denied entry into the United States.

"(b) This section applies only to requests received by the Secretary of the Treasury prior to January 1, 1983, and for the duration of the arrangements."

SEC. 154. (a) Subpart J of part I of schedule 5 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202) is amended by inserting after item 522.51 the following new item:

19 USC 1202 note.

SEC. 156. Notwithstanding any other provision of this joint resolution, there is appropriated $518,000,000, to remain available until expended, for Department of Transportation Interstate Transfer grants—Highways, and $365,000,000, to remain available until expended, for Department of Transportation Interstate Transfer grants—Transit: Provided, That allocations of these funds shall be distributed in accordance with House Report 97-783 or Senate Report 97-567, whichever is higher.

SEC. 157-158. Since the United States Congress established the Social Security system in 1935 to provide for the general welfare by establishing a system of Federal old-age benefits; and Medicare.

Since Medicare was made part of the Social Security system by Act of Congress in 1965 to provide for the general welfare through a system of health benefits for the aged; and

Since medicare is an insurance program in which working Americans contribute their Social Security payroll taxes and in which the elderly and disabled pay health insurance premiums in order to receive health benefits promised under this insurance plan; and

Since proposals to limit eligibility for Medicare health benefits to lower-income persons would profoundly alter the character of health insurance for the aged and disabled by removing the insurance principle from the Medicare program.

It is the sense of the Senate that the Congress should reject any proposal to impose a “means test” on eligibility for the Medicare program or benefits provided by the Medicare program.

SEC. 159. Any amount remaining on September 30, 1982, from the contract authority and budget authority made available for use as provided in the third proviso under the heading, “Annual Contributions for Assisted Housing (Rescission)”, in the Urgent Supplemental Appropriations Act, 1982 (Public Law 97-216), shall remain available for obligation in accordance with the terms of such proviso, except that the Agreement to Enter into a Housing Assistance Payments Contract shall not be required to include a provision requiring that construction must be in progress prior to January 1,

Ante, p. 183.

1983: Provided, That none of the amounts available for obligation in accordance with the foregoing shall be subject to the provisions of section 5(c) (2) and (3) and the fourth sentence of section 5(c)(1) of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as amended (42 U.S.C. 1437c), and section 213(d) of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, as amended (42 U.S.C. 1439).

SEC. 160. All obligations incurred in anticipation of the appropriations and authority provided in this joint resolution for the purposes of maintaining the minimum level of essential activities necessary to protect life and property and bringing about orderly termination of other functions are hereby ratified and confirmed if otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this joint resolution.

SEC. 161. Section 2 of the International Coffee Agreement Act of 1980 (19 U.S.C. 1356k) is amended by striking out "October 1, 1982" and inserting in lieu thereof "the expiration of this joint resolution".

SEC. 162. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this joint resolution, except section 102, amounts which are available by section 101 for continuing activities conducted in 1982 under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, as amended, are hereby also made available to continue those activities under the provisions of S. 2036 as reported by the Committee of Conference.

SEC. 163. None of the funds provided in this joint resolution shall be used to implement an apportionment and staffing plan to specifically phase down the Public Health Service Commissioned Corps.

SEC. 164. Notwithstanding section 1804 of the Public Health Service Act, funds provided for the President's Commission for the Study of Ethical Problems in Medicine and Biomedical and Behavioral Research by the Urgent Supplemental Appropriations Act, 1982 (Public Law 97-216) shall remain available until December 31, 1982.

SEC. 165. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, effective for the calendar year ending December 31, 1982, the Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate is authorized to pay, from funds available to him in the account (within the contingent fund of the Senate) for "Miscellaneous Items", the increase in the mileage tariff rates imposed, effective October 1981, by the General Services Administration for telephone service provided through its Federal Telecommunications System during such calendar year to Senators in the States they represent. If and to the extent that there has been paid, from the Official Office Expense Account of any Senator, an amount which is authorized to be paid under the preceding sentence, then the Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate shall reimburse such Expense Account of such Senator by a sum equal to such amount, upon certification and documentation (consisting of appropriate data supplied by the General Services Administration) by such Senator. Payments made under this section shall be made upon vouchers approved by the Sergeant at Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate.

SEC. 166. None of the funds appropriated under this joint resolution or any other provisions of law shall be used for the purposes of conducting any studies relating or leading to the possibility of changing from the currently required "at cost" to a "market rate" method for the pricing of hydroelectric power by the six Federal public power authorities, or other agencies or authorities of the Federal Government.
